THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM OF

Catalina James Smedley

Pastor: Catalina, receive now the Light of Christ. May you walk always as a child of light. May your light so shine before others that they may see your good works and give glory to God. Catalina is now received into the love and care of the church. See what love God has given us that we should be called children of God.

All: Almighty God, giver of life, you have called us by name and pledged to each of us your faithful love. We pray for your child, Catalina. Inspire her life. May she sing many songs, know many joys, heal many wounds, and embrace many people in your name. We pray for her parents, that they may be guided by your love so that they may know your presence. May we walk together with this family as witnesses to your gospel, as those for whom you have lived and died and live again. Amen.

Pastor: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you always.

All: Amen

The piece concludes with a double bar line.

SCRIPTURE

Gerald Wilk

Psalms 90

A prayer of Moses, the man of God

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

You turn us back to dust, and say, "Turn back, you mortals."

For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past, or like a watch in the night.

You sweep them away; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning; in the morning it flourishes and is renewed; in the evening it fades and withers.

You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in front of your face.

For all our days pass away under your wrath; our years come to an end like a sigh.

The days of our life are seventy years, or perhaps eighty, if we are strong; even then their span is only toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away. So teach us to count our days that we may gain a wise heart. Turn, O Lord! How long? Have compassion on your servants! Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad as many days as you have afflicted us, and as many years as we have seen evil. Let your work be manifest to your servants, and your glorious power to their children. Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands— O prosper the work of our hands!

* STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.
We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.
We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

James L. M. Bain
arr. Gordon Jacob

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want,
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house forever more
My dwelling place shall be.

TODAY'S MUSIC

Our Prelude is I Don't Feel No Ways Tired, composed in 1980 by the Reverend James Cleveland (1931 - 1991). He was inspired by the exclamation of an elderly woman in his congregation. She'd had a hard life with pain, disappointment, and mistreatment "just because of who she was." She found strength in her faith, redemption in Christ, and liberation in the Holy Spirit. Her words and fortitude inspired the Reverend Cleveland. He also carried on the tradition started by Thomas A. Dorsey fusing the spirit-filled music of gospel with the energy and drive of jazz. Muzette Morgan, our longtime alto section leader and St. Pauls member, introduced this song to us.

The text for Awake, Awake to Love and Work was composed in 1921 by Geoffrey Anketel Studdert Kennedy (1883 - 1929), who was an Anglican minister of proud Irish descent. He spent his life working in deprived surroundings. The tune, MORNING SONG, is from another great early American shape-note hymnal, Kentucky Harmony. The melody is based on the English folk song Old King Cole.

Enter, Rejoice, and Come In was composed in the 1970's by Louise Ruspini (1900 - 2000), who also provided the text based on Psalm 100. The tune borrows from the first line of the refrain: ENTER, REJOICE.

The text for Morning Has Broken was written by Elinor Farjeon (1881-1965), who also wrote children's books. The tune we know so well, BUNESSAN, is a Gaelic melody.

The text for Child of Blessing, Child of Promise was written in 1981 by a UCC pastor and teacher of theology, Ronald Cole-Turner (b. 1948). The tune, STUTTGART, was composed in 1715 by Christian Friederich Witt (1660 - 1716). Witt completed a huge hymnal, Psalmodia Sacra, the year before his death. Of the 774 hymns (!!!), nearly 100 were composed by him. He was Kapellmeister of the Gotha court in Stuttgart at the same time that Bach was in Leipzig, just 300 miles north. As an interesting side note, Nathan Laube, world renowned organist and friend of St. Pauls, is currently on the organ faculty at the Hochschule für Musik in Stuttgart.

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need uses a text by the great English poet and hymnodist, Issac Watts (1674 - 1748). Watts set the entire book of Psalms poetically, many of which we still sing today, notably Our God Our Help In Ages Past, which we will sing later in this service. RESIGNATION is another hymn melody whose composer is unattributed and is from the great early American hymnal, The Sacred Harp.

The tune for Brother James Air, MAROSA, is an alternate name for RESIGNATION, a similar melody as the hymn preceding the Offertory Anthem. It was composed by James Leith Macbeth Bain (1860 – 1925). He was a healer and mystic simply known as Brother James. This arrangement was composed in 1934 by Gordon Jacob (1895 – 1984). Jacob was an English composer and professor at the Royal College of Music in London for more than 40 years. He was known for his orchestrations of composers from Byrd to Elgar to Noël Coward. The text is a poetic version of Psalm 23 taken from the Scottish Psalter of 1650.

Issac Watts (1674 - 1748) penned the text for Our God Our Help in Age Past in 1719. It is a poetic setting of Psalm 90. We sing Watts' setting of Psalm 23 before and as part of the Offertory Anthem. The tune, ST. ANNE, was likely composed in 1708 by William Croft (1677 - 1727) in London. He became the organist at Westminster Cathedral. As a side note, Bach's famous Prelude and Fugue in E Flat Major BWV 552 (1735-36) is often referred to as "St. Anne," because Bach seems to quote that tune in the final theme of the "triple fugue." There is no way Bach would have heard or known that tune, but it certainly is an interesting apocryphal story.

Variations on Morning Song-Finale was composed by Robert Grogan. He was the Carillonneur and Organist at The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. He both recorded and composed.

CREATION CORNER - Overpopulation Is the Elephant in the Room

The world's population is more than 7.3 billion. It perhaps will reach 9.7 billion by 2050, and more than 11 billion by 2100. According to the U.N. Population Fund, about 350 million women in the poorest countries may not have wanted their last child, but they did not have the means or knowledge to prevent pregnancy. Reaching a sustainable population is as much about boosting women's rights issues as reducing consumption of resources, according to a recent BBC study.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

OCT 13 - BIBLE STUDY: 1 CORINTHIANS 12 - 12-12:45 p.m., Zoom

St. Paul's famous words about love were written to a local church only about 7 years old. They were new Christians struggling to build a community around the good news of Jesus. For Paul, Christian faith can only be lived in community and in this letter he addresses the questions and struggles of a group of early Christians that remain surprisingly similar to our own. 1 Corinthians is a timely book to read as we reenter our in-person life together. Meets weekly on Zoom. RSVP: Pastor Jeff, jcarlson@spucc.org.

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 177 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
