PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Matt Fitzgerald

Gracious God, we confess that we are what we have sung:

Poor and needy;
weak and wounded;
sick and sore.

We do our best to hide the truth,
But you know full well our need of you.
God, in your mercy, forgive our self-deception.
Feed us, sustain us and heal us,
Through the grace of Jesus Christ, Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Psalms 34

A Psalm of David, when he outwitted Abimelech and got away.

I will bless the Lord at all times; God's praise shall continually be in my mouth.
My soul makes its boast in the Lord; let the humble hear and be glad.
O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt God's name together.

I sought the Lord, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.
Look to God, and be radiant; so your faces shall never be ashamed.
This poor soul cried, and was heard by the Lord, and was saved from every trouble.
The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in him.
O fear the Lord, you his holy ones, for those who fear him have no want.
The young lions suffer want and hunger, but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing.

Come, O children, listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord.
Which of you desires life, and covets many days to enjoy good?
Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking deceit.
Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry.
The face of the Lord is against evildoers, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
When the righteous cry for help, the Lord hears, and rescues them from all their troubles.
The Lord is near to the brokenhearted, and saves the crushed in spirit.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord rescues them from them all. He keeps all their bones; not one of them will be broken.
Evil brings death to the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.
The Lord redeems the life of his servants; none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

* STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

V. Lübeck

TODAY'S MUSIC

Andraé Crouch (1942 - 2015) wrote both the text and tune for How Can I Say Thanks, MY TRIBUTE, in 1971. Crouch is among the greatest gospel composers and performers. Both his mother and father were pastors. He first began playing service for his father's church at age 11. The opening lines of the refrain, "To God be the glory," pays homage to Fanny Crosby (1820 - 1915) by quoting her famous hymn text.

Come Ye Sinners Poor and Needy, to the tune RESTORATION, is mined from the wonderful early 19th century American shape-note hymnals including Southern Harmony. Its composer and lyricist are unknown, but it was first published in 1835. The melody is characterized by a folk-like swing.

The text for Amazing Grace is by John Newton (1725-1807), who was a slave ship captain, but became an Anglican clergy and fervent abolitionist. He once said that writing this text saved his soul. The tune, NEW BRITAIN, is most likely an African American spiritual and was first published in 1829.

Taste and See, both the text and tune, I WILL BLESS THE LORD AT ALL TIMES, are composed and written by James E. Moore (b. 1951) and was first published in 1983. Moore is a Black Catholic composer. A native of Virginia, he now resides, teaches and conducts a professional choir in Vienna. The text is a contemporary communion hymn.

Randall Thompson, (1899-1984), wrote the Alleluia in 1940 on a commission from Serge Koussevitsky, Music Director of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. It was performed by the entire student body for the opening exercises of the Berkshire Music Center, summer home of the BSO. A historical note: this anthem was sung to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on the night before he was assassinated. A high school choir that was supposed to have sung for the meeting in Memphis that evening was delayed by bus trouble and missed the meeting. The students were upset, and when Dr King found out they had arrived late, he asked them to please sing for him in his motel room. The students crowded into that small place and sang this inspiring work, the last music in this world that Dr. King would hear.

The text for Guide Me, O My Great Redeemer was written in Welsh in 1745 by William Williams (1717-1791). He was called the “Issac Watts of Wales.” He studied medicine but became a Calvinist Methodist clergy. The translation to English was made in 1771 by Peter Williams (1722-1796), who was also Welsh and became a Calvinist Methodist. The tune, CWM RHONNDA, is a great Welsh melody composed in 1905 by John Hughes (1873-1932). Hughes composed this for a Baptist song festival in Wales.

Our postlude, Prelude and Fugue in F, LüBWV 8 was composed by German Baroque composer Vincent Lübeck (1664-1740). He was a contemporary of Bach, and actually had a much more prestigious post than Bach at the court and St. Nikolai in Hamburg. His church in Hamburg had one of the largest pipe organs in northern Europe. He was also more famous in his lifetime than Bach. Very few of his works survive, and most of those are for organ.

CREATION CORNER - Companies Failing to Live Up to Promises

Top food, beverage, and consumer goods companies promised ten years ago to end deforestation in their supply chains by 2020. This goal has not been achieved. Progress has been made by some companies, but the problem of supply chain issues remains a serious problem.

OCT 27 - BIBLE STUDY: 1 CORINTHIANS 13 All you need is love! - 12-12:45 p.m., Zoom

St. Paul's famous words about love were written to a local church only about 7 years old. They were new Christians struggling to build a community around the good news of Jesus. For Paul, Christian faith can only be lived in community and in this letter he addresses the questions and struggles of a group of early Christians that remain surprisingly similar to our own. 1 Corinthians is a timely book to read as we reenter our in-person life together. Meets weekly on Zoom. RSVP: Pastor Jeff, jcarlson@spucc.org.

OCT 28 - READING WITH ST. AUGUSTINE - 5 p.m., Cloud Room

Join Pastoral Associate Benny in this adult faith formation series, meeting bi-monthly on Thursday evenings. We will gather in witness to Augustine of Hippo's Confessions, one of the first Christian autobiographies. This will be a book group that requires little to no outside reading, a time when we will instead experience the text together in a contemplative gathering that will include periods of prayer and silence. This series will bridge other studies focused on the Biblical period and early church movement to take us to the early days of the Latin church, that period of global growth and imagination. How do St. Augustine's words stir us today? To join in or for more information, please email Benny at bvanderburgh@spucc.org.

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 177 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
