THOUGHT FOR PREPARATION

*The more I love God, the more gladly I exist. The more immediately and wholly I exist.
Life itself is glorious, and here joy in existence can be had for nothing.*
Jürgen Moltmann

PRELUDE

There'll Be Peace in the Valley for Me
St. Arbucks Quartet

Thomas Dorsey

I'm tired and so weary
But I must go alone
Till the lord comes and calls, calls me away, oh yes
Well the morning's so bright
And the lamp is alight
And the night, night is as black as the sea.,

There will be peace in the valley for me, some day
There will be peace in the valley for me, oh Lord I pray
There'll be no sadness, no sorrow
No trouble, trouble I see
There will be peace in the valley for me, for me

The Countless Hosts in White Array 17 Century Norwegian
Chancel Choir arr. Edvard Grieg

The countless hosts in white array, that in God's presence ever stay,
All bearing palms, singing psalms, what are these; whence came they?
These are the ransomed souls that bore on earth great tribulation sore;
They overcame through Jesus' name, won life for evermore.

For a faith that nev - er tires, and for ev - ery heart re - newed,

God of all, to you we raise this our hymn of grate - ful praise.

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps) and 4/4 time. The melody is primarily in the Soprano and Alto parts, with the piano providing harmonic support. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staves.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Benny VanDerburgh

Giver of every good gift, always more ready to hear than we are to pray,
We confess that we take your good gifts for granted.
Our mouths are full of complaints.
The beauty of the earth is defaced by our greed.
The splendor of the skies is darkened by our smoke.
Forgive us.
Melt our cynical hearts and renew our sense of wonder in your good world.
Open our eyes to the gifts that surround us every day,
Especially the gift of mercy and grace in your Son Jesus Christ,
In whose name we pray. Amen.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM OF

Michael Quintin Sanz

Pastor: Michael, receive now the Light of Christ. May you walk always as a child of light. May your light so shine before others that they may see your good works and give glory to God. Michael is now received into the love and care of the church. See what love God has given us that we should be called children of God.

All: Almighty God, giver of life, you have called us by name and pledged to each of us your faithful love. We pray for your child, Michael. Inspire his life. May he sing many songs, know many joys, heal many wounds, and embrace many people in your name. We pray for his parents, that they may be guided by your love so that they may know your presence. May we walk together with this family as witnesses to your gospel, as those for whom you have lived and died and live again. Amen.

Pastor: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you always.

All: Amen

SCRIPTURE

Kirsten Simonton

Psalms 126

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
we were like those who dream.
Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy;
then it was said among the nations,
“The Lord has done great things for them.”
The Lord has done great things for us, and we rejoiced.

Restore our fortunes, O Lord,
like the watercourses in the Negeb.
May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy.
Those who go out weeping,
bearing the seed for sowing,
shall come home with shouts of joy,
carrying their sheaves.

Revelation 21:1–5

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.”

 STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

Nothin' lost, all's gain, no more fret nor pain
No more stumblin' on the way, no more longin' for the day
Gwine to roam no more
Mornin' star lights the way, restless dream all done
Shadows gone, break o' day, real life jes' begun.

Dere's no break, ain't no end, jes' a livin' on Wide awake with a smile, goin' on and on

Charles-Marie Widor

If you would like someone to pray with you today, Stephen Ministers are present after the Postlude at the right front of the Sanctuary.

Following Worship, all are invited for a Social Hour time of fellowship in the gym. At this time, we will not be serving coffee so everyone remains masked while indoors.

THE MEANING OF TOTENFEST

This is the last Sunday of the church year. The new church year begins next week with the First Sunday in Advent. Today, we remember those in our congregation who have died and we give thanks for their lives. We lift up in prayer the families and friends of those who have lost loved ones. From St. Pauls' German heritage, we call this day Totenfest, which means "a festival celebration for those who have died." The liturgical color for this Sunday is white, a symbol of resurrection.

TODAY'S MUSIC

Thomas Dorsey (1899-1993) is truly the originator of gospel music, a fusion of church music with jazz. He is a Chicago original and beloved worldwide. He wrote There'll Be Peace in the Valley for Me in 1939 for Mahalia Jackson (1911-1972). It was the first gospel recording to sell more than 1 million copies. It has been covered by singers from country and western singer Red Foley (1910-1968) to Elvis Presley (1935-1977).

The Countless Hosts in White Array is a Norwegian folk melody from the 17th century. DEN STORE HVIDE FLOK, which is the tune name, is the first line of the Norwegian poem by Hans Adolf Brorson (1694-1764), who composed the poem c. 1760. Helen A. Dickinson (1875-957) provided the translation into English in 1907. This hymn arrangement was by one of Norway's most famous composers, Edvard Grieg (1843-1907). Among Grieg's many great works is the Peer Gynt Suite and his Piano Concerto.

The text for For the Beauty of the Earth was written by Folliott S. Pierpont (1835 - 1917). In the spring of 1863, Pierpont sat on a hill above his home in Bath, England, and this text flowed from his gratitude for the wonders of nature. The tune DIX was composed by German composer Konrad Kocher (1786 -1872). He was trained as a teacher and eventually founded the School for Sacred Song in Stuttgart.

The tune, KREMSER, is an unattributed Dutch folksong and dates from the 16th century. We also know a more traditional Thanksgiving text in English, We Gather Together to Ask the Lord's Blessing. The text of this version, We Praise You, O God, Our Redeemer, Creator, was written by Julia C. Cory (1882-1963) in 1902. Because her father was a Sunday school superintendent and an amateur hymn writer, Julia began composing hymn texts at a very early age.

The text for Child of Blessing, Child of Promise was written in 1981 by a UCC pastor and teacher of theology, Ronald Cole-Turner (b. 1948). The tune, STUTTGART, was composed in 1715 by Christian Friederich Witt (1660-1716). Witt completed a huge hymnal Psalmodia Sacra the year before his death. Of the 774 hymns (!!!), nearly 100 were composed by him. He was Kapellmeister of the Gotha court in Stuttgart at the same time that Bach was in Leipzig, just 300 miles north. As an interesting side note, Nathan Laube, world renowned organist and friend of St. Pauls, is currently on the organ faculty at the Hochschule für Musik in Stuttgart.

Now Thank We All Our God is a translation by Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878) of the original German by Martin Rinkart (1586-1649) written in 1636. Winkworth, although born in England, spent many years in Dresden, which is why she was so adept at translating German chorales. She was also a tireless fighter for women's rights. Rinkart became a scholar at St. Thomas School in Leipzig where Bach would later be Kapellmeister. The tune, NUN DANKET, takes its name from the first words of the German text. It is most often attributed to Johann Crüger (1558-1662), who in reality was the publisher of the psalter where this hymn tune first appeared.

Goin' Home is an anthem based on a beautiful theme in the Symphony No. 9, "From the New World" by Antonin Dvořák (1841-1904). Dvořák was a Czech composer who spent a very important part of his career in the United States. He was deeply affected by folk music of his Bohemian heritage, so it is not surprising that during his time in our country that he was also moved by the African American spirituals he heard. The famous African American composer Harry T Burleigh worked with Dvořák, so for many years, it was assumed that the tune we associate with Goin' Home was a spiritual Dvořák had heard. The problem is that there is no record of a spiritual with that title or melody. It is a tribute to Dvořák that he created a melody that was an homage to a musical genre that was foreign to him but also tugged at the roots of his love for Bohemian folk music. The words were added in 1922 by one of his American students, William Arms Fischer, who expressed the hope and belief of life beyond death just close by, through an open door.

The author of the text of For All the Saints was William Walsham How (1823-1897). He penned the poetry we love so much in 1864. How was an Oxford graduate and served many parishes in England throughout his life. Just to prove there can be a sense of humor even in hymn tune names, SINE NOMINE, means "no name" in Latin. The stirring music was written in 1906 by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958). He is one of the greatest English composers of the post-Victorian era. He composed music for nearly all genres of performance.

The Finale from Symphony No. 4 in F minor, Op 13 No. 4 was composed by Charles-Marie Widor (1844-1937) and dates from 1872. Along with Louis Vièrne, Widor was one of the great Romantic symphonists for organ. Vièrne was one of his students, as was Marcel Dupré. He was born into a family of organ builders. He composed 10 symphonies for the organ. He was also the organist of Saint-Sulpice in Paris from 1870 to 1933. This Finale has been eclipsed in popularity by his Toccata from his Symphony No. 5 in F minor, Opus 42, No. 1, but it shows his brilliance as both a composer and his own talent as a performer.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

DEC 1 - BIBLE STUDY: 1 CORINTHIANS 15 - THE HOPE OF THE RESURRECTION- 12 p.m., Zoom

St. Paul's famous words about love were written to a local church only about 7 years old. They were new Christians struggling to build a community around the good news of Jesus. For Paul, Christian faith can only be lived in community and in this letter he addresses the questions and struggles of a group of early Christians that remain surprisingly similar to our own. 1 Corinthians is a timely book to read as we reenter our in-person life together. Meets weekly on Zoom. RSVP: Pastor Jeff, jcarlson@spucc.org.

DEC 2 - READING WITH ST. AUGUSTINE - 5 p.m., Cloud Room

We will gather bi-weekly on Thursday evenings in witness to Augustine of Hippo's Confessions, one of the first Christian autobiographies. Participation requires little to no outside reading. We will experience the text together in a contemplative gathering that will include periods of prayer and silence. This series will bridge other studies focused on the Biblical period and early church movement to take us to the early days of the Latin church, that period of global growth and imagination. How do St. Augustine's words stir us today? To join in or for more information, please email Benny at bvanderburgh@spucc.org.

DEC 9 - INTERFAITH ROUNDTABLE ON HOMELESSNESS - 6:30-8 p.m., Zoom

How can YOU make a difference in the problem of homelessness? Join an interfaith roundtable on homelessness in Chicago to learn about the Bring Home Chicago Coalition's ballot initiative to generate revenue for housing solutions. Chicago Metropolitan Association UCC Associate Minister Rev. Dr. Terrill Murff is a featured speaker. Register today at bit.ly/BCHbringinghome.

DEC 9 - LIGHTHOUSE FOUNDATION BLACK QUEER EQUITY INDEX UPDATE EVENT - 6:00 p.m., Zoom

Since last spring, Lighthouse Foundation has worked meticulously to establish indicators of equity for Black Queer folks in the workplace. The Black Queer Equity Index (BQEI) surveys the top LGBTQ+ serving organizations in Chicago to ensure that Black LGBTQ+ employees and board members are treated justly. During this event, you will hear an update on the BQEI, including their evaluation findings thus far and plans for the project's future. For RSVP information visit lightfoundchi.org.

DEC 13 - COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO, PART 2, DISCUSSION - 7 p.m.

The Long, Classic Novels Reading Group will discuss part two of Alexandre Dumas' page-turner adventure novel. Fast readers have time to catch up! RSVP: Jeff Carlson, jcarlson@spucc.org. Feel free to email Jeff with your nominees for next year's reading list.

DEC 14 - AN EVENING WITH SUFJAN'S CHRISTMAS(ES) - 7 p.m., Sanctuary

Did you know that Sufjan Stevens has released 101 Christmas songs? He has released three versions of Angels We Have Heard on High alone. Many Christians and non-Christian music lovers alike have rested in his strange and sincere covers as a way to make it through this season faithfully. Join Pastoral Associate Benny for this special listening event in our sanctuary on Tuesday, December 14 at 7 p.m. We'll quietly enjoy Sufjan's work and contemplate our own belonging in the vast tradition of preparing for the Christ child. RSVP at bvanderburgh@spucc.org – and if you have requests for what we listen to, send titles his way!

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.

Senior Pastor Matt Fitzgerald, mfitzgerald@spucc.org
Associate Pastor Jeff Carlson, jcarlson@spucc.org
Pastoral Associate Benny VanDerburgh, bvanderburgh@spucc.org
