PRELUDE

A Cradle in Bethlehem Al Bryan & Lawrence Stock

Nancy Pifer, soloist

St. Arbucks Quartet

Sing sweet and low, a lullaby

'Til angels sing amen

A mother tonight is rocking

A cradle in Bethlehem.

While wise men follow through the dark

A star that beckons them

A mother tonight is rocking

A cradle in Bethlehem.

A little child

Shall lead them

The prophet says of old

In storm and tempest even

Until the bell is tolled.

Sing sweet and low, ...

Director of Little Lights

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And he came to her and said, 'Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you.' But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.' Mary said to the angel, 'How can this be, since I am a virgin?' The angel said to her, 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. Then Mary said, 'Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.'

Luke 2:1-7

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Luke 2:8-14

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

SCRIPTURE

Matthew 2:1–12

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.” When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’” Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.”

When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary, his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

ADVENT WREATH

Each week during Advent we light another candle in our Advent wreath to anticipate the coming of Christ, the light of the world. These candles symbolize the gifts of hope, love, joy and peace that Christ's coming brings.

PINK CANDLE, WHY? - This is Gaudete (Rejoice) Sunday. Both Advent and Lent are considered penitential seasons, but the early church leaders decided that each of those seasons need an uplifting break. That is why on Gaudete Sunday, the third Sunday in Advent, the liturgical color changes from purple to pink or rose before returning to purple on the fourth Sunday.

The Cultivation of Christmas Trees by T.S. Eliot

There are several attitudes towards Christmas,
Some of which we may disregard:
The social, the torpid, the patently commercial,
The rowdy (the pubs being open till midnight),
And the childish — which is not that of the child
For whom the candle is a star, and the gilded angel
Spreading its wings at the summit of the tree
Is not only a decoration, but an angel.

The child wonders at the Christmas Tree:
Let him continue in the spirit of wonder
At the Feast as an event not accepted as a pretext;
So that the glittering rapture, the amazement
Of the first-remembered Christmas Tree,
So that the surprises, delight in new possessions
(Each one with its peculiar and exciting smell),
The expectation of the goose or turkey
And the expected awe on its appearance,

So that the reverence and the gaiety
May not be forgotten in later experience,
In the bored habituation, the fatigue, the tedium,
The awareness of death, the consciousness of failure,
Or in the piety of the convert
Which may be tainted with a self-conceit
Displeasing to God and disrespectful to children
(And here I remember also with gratitude
St. Lucy, her carol, and her crown of fire):

So that before the end, the eightieth Christmas
(By “eightieth” meaning whichever is last)
The accumulated memories of annual emotion
May be concentrated into a great joy
Which shall be also a great fear, as on the occasion
When fear came upon every soul:
Because the beginning shall remind us of the end
And the first coming of the second coming.

TODAY'S MUSIC

A Cradle in Bethlehem was made popular by Nat King Cole (1919-1965). Elbridge "Al" Bryant (1939-1975), one of the two composers, was one of the original members of the Temptations. Lawrence "Larry" Stock (1896-1984) was a prolific American songwriter. Among his most popular songs, he co-wrote Blueberry Hill with Fats Domino and Al Lewis.

Once in Royal David's City became popularized as the traditional processional of the Festival of Lessons and Carols broadcast each year from King's College Chapel at Cambridge in England. The text was composed in 1848, not long after the founding of our St. Pauls, by Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895), the wife of the bishop of Ireland. She wrote many hymn texts specifically for children. The tune, IRBY, was composed in 1849 by Henry J. Gauntlett (1805-1876). Gauntlett became the organist at his father's church, and after beginning a career in law, he gave it up to become a full time church musician. He even held patents on organ mechanical parts.

The poetry for O Little Town of Bethlehem has a wonderful story. Phillips Brooks (1835-1893), an American, took a trip to Israel in 1865 at the close of the Civil War. The Reverend Brooks spent Christmas in Bethlehem in 1866, and this poem poured forth in 1868 as a result of that visit. ST. LOUIS, which is the tune most Americans know, was also composed in 1868 by Louis Redner (1831-1908), a Sunday school superintendent in Philadelphia. It was composed the night before it was sung at his church and it is the only one for which he is remembered.

The Bleak Midwinter text was written by Christina Georgina Rossetti (1830–1894) in 1872. She was a prolific English poet. The tune; CRANHAM, is by Gustav Holst (1874–1934), who is best known as the composer of The Planets.

The words for It Came Upon a Midnight Clear were written in 1849 by Edmund H. Sears (1810-1876). He was born in this country and moved to England in 1838. Ill health forced him to retire to a quiet life of literature. The well known music, CAROL, was composed in 1850 by Richard Storrs Willis (1819-1900). He was an American composer particularly drawn to creating hymn tunes.

Hark! The Herald Angels Sing is easily among the most well-known Christmas carols. The text was written by the famous Methodist clergy Charles Wesley (1749-1788) in 1739 and was altered to its present version in the same year by George Whitefield (1714-1770). The tune name, MENDELSSOHN, takes its name from its famous German composer, Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847), who was much beloved in England. The melody is borrowed from a larger work, Festgesang, Op. 68, composed in 1840.

The text for Gentle Joseph, Joseph Dear is relatively new, 1993. It is a paraphrase by Carol Birkland (b. 1945) of an older translation of the German. Written specifically for our New Century Hymnal, JOSEPH LIEBER, JOSEPH MEIN, the tune title, takes its name from the first words of the 15th century German carol. There is also an alternate Latin tune name, RESONET IN LAUDIBUS, which means “ring in praise.”

The author of the text for The First Nowell (or Noel) is anonymous and dates from 1833. The tune, THE FIRST NOEL, is a traditional English carol. Nowell is a more common spelling of the word. Noël is the French word that many of us see more often and means Christmas.

As With Gladness Those of Old is set to the tune DIX, which was composed by W. Chatterton Dix (1837–1898). Mr. Dix also composed the original lyrics. He was a Scottish insurance company manager who also published a number of volumes of hymns.

Go Tell It on the Mountain is not attributed to any composer; however, John W. Work (1872-1925) “curated” this and many other Black American spirituals and folk songs. Work was a graduate of the Historically Black College, Fisk University in Nashville. He returned to his alma mater to direct the world famous Fisk Jubilee Singers. This arrangement was inspired and sung for many years by St. Pauls member and Chancel Choir alto section leader Muzette Morgan.

Priidite poklonimsya (Come let us worship) is the first movement/motet of the 15 motets that comprise the All-Night Vigil Op. 37 composed in 1915 by Sergei Rachmaninov (1873-1943). It uses Psalm 95:6 as an expanded refrain for three stanzas or repetitions. Each stanza begins with great vigor and ends in soft reverence. The Vigil is introduced by liturgy sung by a bass deacon and a tenor priest, which we recreate here. Old Church Slavonic has a similar relation to modern Russian as Latin does to Italian. Slavonic has been retained by the Russian Orthodox Church as a true connection to its roots. Rachmaninov felt so deeply about this work that he asked to be buried with a copy of the score in his hands. The choir’s Old Church Slavonic was coached by Karina Kontorovitch.

Good Christian Friends, Rejoice is a translation of the original Latin by John Mason Neale (1818-1886). He was born into an evangelical home, became an Anglican clergy, but had real sympathies for Catholicism. IN DULCI JUBILO, which means “in sweet rejoicing,” is an early undated folk dance.

The text for Joy to the World was written in 1719 by the famous British poet and theologian, Issac Watts (1674-1748). Watts' great contribution was setting the entire Book of Psalms poetically. This is a paraphrase of both Psalms 98 & 96. One of his most well beloved texts is Our God, Our Help in Ages Past. ANTIOCH was composed by George Friderick Handel (1685-1759), who also composed Messiah, and was adapted as a hymn by Lowell Mason (1792-1872). Mason is often referred to as the father of American church music for his contributions.

Angels We Have Heard on High is originally an 18th century French Noël (carol) freely translated by James Chadwick (1813-1882), an Irish Catholic priest. GLORIA is from the text of the joyfully cascading Latin refrain. Lloyd Larson is a church musician and full time composer with many published works. He is also an elder in his church in Minnesota.

REFUGEE FAMILY UPDATE

The apartment team met on December 7 to get to know each other and plan our work. If anyone has a truck we could use on short notice in January, please let us know. Also, we still have room on that team for folks to move furniture. So, if you can help us with either of these things, please contact Mark Pellegrino jjmarkp@yahoo.com. Thank you!

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY will resume in January.

CREATION CORNER - provided by Green Team

Did you know that synthetic fibers from clothing are a significant contributor to microplastic pollution, especially in waterways and oceans? Fleece is a big offender. Read tags before buying. Go back to nature - wool, cotton, silk, bamboo and hemp. If you haven't already, switch to reusable water bottles and use reusable bags at grocery stores and elsewhere. Remember, plastic doesn't go away. Plasticware takes up to 1,000 years to decompose. A styrofoam cup can take more than 500 years to biodegrade.

The Green Team welcomes your input, participation and ideas! Help us as a congregation live out what we say in our Statement of Faith: God calls us to care for creation. Joe Womack and Jan Fraccaro are co-chairs. If interested or to offer suggestions, email Jan at jan.fraccaro@gmail.com.

ABOUT ST. PAULS

Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.

Senior Pastor Matt Fitzgerald, mfitzgerald@spucc.org

Associate Pastor Jeff Carlson, jcarlson@spucc.org

Pastoral Associate Benny VanDerburgh, bvanderburgh@spucc.org

Pastor Emeritus Tom Henry, emeritushenry@gmail.com
