

Service of Ashes
March 2, 2022

No matter who you are,
No matter where you are
On life's journey,
You are welcome here.

THOUGHT FOR PREPARATION

"Every day I want to speak with you. And every day something more important calls for my attention. Even now I can hardly sit here. The mystics say you are as close as my own breath. Why do I flee from you?"
From Prayer by Marie Howe

PRELUDE

Komm, süßer Tod BWV 478
(Come, Sweet Death)
Kurt R. Hansen, tenor
Kevin Dzierzawski, organ

J. S. Bach

Come, sweet death, come, blessed rest!
Come lead me to peace for I am weary of the world,
O come! I wait for you, come soon and lead me, close my eyes. Come, blessed rest!

CHORAL INTROIT

Just as I Am

WELCOME

Matt Fitzgerald

* CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Blessed are those whose transgression is forgiven.

All: Blessed are those in whose spirit there is no deceit.

One: While I kept silent, my body wasted away.

All: Then I acknowledged my sin and said:

"I will confess my transgressions to the Lord."

One: And you forgave the guilt of my sin.

All: You surround me with glad cries of deliverance.

* Please stand if you are able to do so.

* HYMN

RESPONSIVE PRAYER

Benny VanDerburgh

One: O God, you are unflinchingly faithful. We are repeatedly unfaithful.

All: You are merciful. We are defiant.

One: You come to us. We withdraw.

All: You are wholly concerned with us. We are otherwise occupied.

One: Christ makes himself known. We make our own gods.

All: God, You are utterly self-giving. We are turned in upon ourselves.

One: You are always ready to give. We are never ready to receive.

All: Your Word is a radiant message of joy. We turn it into a gloomy rule.

One: All of this is no less against ourselves than it is against you, O Lord.

All: And yet, You still forgive. Amen.

MOMENT OF SILENT PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Allen Heinemann

Second Corinthians 5, selections

All of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, and take what is coming to us. That keeps us vigilant, you can be sure. It is no light thing to know that we'll all one day stand in that place of Judgment. That is why we work urgently with everyone we meet. If I acted crazy, I did it for God; if I acted in my right mind, I did it for you. Christ's love has moved me to such extremes. His love has the first and last word in everything we do.

The love of Christ urges us on: One man died for everyone, therefore all have died. We are all in the same boat. He included everyone in his death so that everyone could also be included in his life, a resurrection life, a far better life than people ever lived on their own. Because of this, we don't judge people by what they have or how they look. Now we look inside, and what we see is that anyone united with the Messiah is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

* A STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church, to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

OFFERTORY	Abide With Me Chancel Choir	William H. Monk arr. Moses Hogan

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide,
The darkness deepens, Lord, with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.
I need Thy presence every passing hour.
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter’s power?
Who like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

All: Most holy and merciful God: We confess to you and to one another, that we have sinned by our own fault in thought, word and deed; by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

One: We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.

All: Have mercy on us, Lord.

One: We have not listened to your call to serve, as Christ served us. We have grieved your Holy Spirit.

All: Have mercy on us, Lord.

One: We confess to you, Lord, all our past unfaithfulness:
the pride, hypocrisy and impatience of our lives;

All: Have mercy on us, Lord.

One: Our self-indulgent appetites and ways,
and our exploitation of other people,

All: We confess to you, Lord.

One: Our anger at our own frustration,
and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,

All: We confess to you, Lord.

One: Our negligence in prayer and worship,
and our failure to tend the faith that is in us,

All: We confess to you, Lord.

One: Accept our repentance, Lord, for the wrongs we have done:
for our blindness to human need and suffering,
and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,

All: Accept our repentance, Lord.

One: For our waste and pollution of your creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us,

All: Accept our repentance, Lord.

One: Restore us, good Lord, and let your anger depart from us.

SILENT REFLECTION AND PERSONAL CONFESSION

Use the blank piece of paper in your bulletin for personal confession.

Bring it forward to the basket on the table when instructed.

IMPOSITION OF ASHES

If you wish to receive ashes, remain at the front after placing your confession in the container.

If you do not wish to receive ashes, return to your seat.

If you do not wish to come forward at all, please remain seated.

ANTHEM

There Is a Balm in Gilead African American Spiritual Chancel Choir arr. William Dawson
Breanna and Todd Coe, soloists

Refrain: There is a Balm in Gilead,
To make the wounded whole,
There is a Balm in Gilead,
To heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged,
And think my work's in vain,
But then the Holy Spirit,
revives my soul again. Refrain

If you cannot sing like angels,
If you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus,
And say he died for all. Refrain
based on Jeremiah 8:22

LITANY OF ASSURANCE

One: There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

All: If God is for us, who is against us?

One: For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set us free from the law of sin and death.

All: The sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory to be revealed to us.

One: We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to God's purpose.

All: If God is for us, who is against us?
It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn?

Prayer

By Marie Howe

Every day I want to speak with you. And every day something more important calls for my attention—the drugstore, the beauty products, the luggage I need to buy for the trip.

Even now I can hardly sit here among the falling piles of paper and clothing, the garbage trucks outside already screeching and banging.

The mystics say you are as close as my own breath.

Why do I flee from you?

My days and nights pour through me like complaints and become a story I forgot to tell.

Help me. Even as I write these words I am planning to rise from the chair as soon as I finish this sentence.

TONIGHT'S MUSIC

Komm, süßer Tod (Come, sweet death) BWV 478 is from a short collection of solo songs, Geistliches Lieder by Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750). It expresses one of the deeply held tenets of the Lutheran faith at Bach's time, the view that death was both a "sweet" release from the pains of life and the promise of eternal life with Jesus. This melody is also employed in the Meditation this evening arranged by Virgil Fox (1912-1980), one of the three organists that dedicated our "Phoenix" Aeolian-Skinner in 1959. He had both a prodigious technique as well as a theatrical flair.

Just as I Am is set to the tune WOODWORTH, which was composed by American William B. Bradbury (1816–1868) in 1849. He also composed the children's hymn Jesus Loves Me, This I Know. The text is by Charlotte Elliot (1789–1871), who was British. Sadly, she was frail and sickly most of her life, which makes her text especially poignant and personal. This hymn is often associated with altar calls in revivals.

What Wondrous Love Is is another truly great and uniquely American hymn. Neither the author or composer of the tune, WONDROUS LOVE or CHRISTOPHER, is known, and it was first published in Southern Harmony, in the same early 19th century era as the Sacred Harp. Musically, it has both a spiritual slow swing and an open harmony with very few major chords.

Abide With Me - After preaching the last sermon of his career in 1847, Rev. Henry F. Lyte (1793-1847), gave a copy of this hymn text to a relative. Lyte died two months later. The hymn tune, composed near the outbreak of the Civil War in 1861 by William H. Monk (1823-1889), has made this hymn one of the most popular since its composition. Moses Hogan continued and amplified the great tradition of spiritual arrangement that includes William Dawson. He recorded a number of compact discs and did solo arrangements for singers like Kathleen Battle. He was commissioned by St. Pauls to write a piece, I Got a Home in-a Dat Rock, in honor of Ron McCowan's 25 years of service to this congregation.

There Is a Balm in Gilead was arranged for choir by William L. Dawson (1898-1990). He was choral director for many years at the Tuskegee Institute of Alabama. He was responsible, along with others of his generation like Hall Johnson, for making beautiful arrangements of spirituals that spread the performance and popularity of that music within and beyond the African American community. Tuskegee Choir gained international stature under Dr. Dawson's leadership.

In the Cross of Christ I Glory is a text written in 1825 by John Bowring (1792-1872). He was an English Unitarian and became a member of Parliament. His text is decidedly Christian. RATHBURN was composed in 1851 by Ithamar Conkley (1815-1867). Conkley was an American of Scottish descent. He became a professional bass and also organist in New York City.

Our postlude, Toccata in E Minor, was composed by Johann Pachelbel (1653-1706). Pachelbel is not well known outside music circles, but his compositions, especially for organ and choir, provided a deep foundation for German composers in the following generation like Bach and his contemporaries. His best known work is his Canon, which achieved popularity in the last several decades.

PERSONAL CONFESSION

Included in this evening's bulletin is a blank piece of paper on which you may write a personal confession or some other burden that you wish to give to God: a grudge you no longer want to carry, a secret you no longer need to keep to yourself, a resentment you no longer wish to nurture, a grief you no longer care to bear alone. Please come forward during the imposition of ashes to place your personal confession in the offering plate in the front of the church. Following the service, the confessions will be burned as our offering to God. If you do not wish to receive ashes, you may bring your confession forward and simply return to your seat. If you do not wish to come forward at all, you may remain seated.

ASH WEDNESDAY

Ash Wednesday begins the season of Lent for the Christian Church. Lent is a 40-day period before Easter patterned after the 40 days that Jesus spent in the desert in fasting and prayer. The 40 days do not include Sundays, which are considered "days of resurrection" in the midst of a time of confession and prayer.

Ash Wednesday, which was first observed in the fourth century, has been linked most often to the Roman Catholic Church, but it actually predates Roman Catholicism and comes from our common early church heritage. Ash Wednesday, along with several other "acts" of worship, was lost during the Protestant Reformation as a result of that period's heavy emphasis on preaching the Word. The imposition of ashes upon the foreheads of believers was, and is, a sign of human mortality. The ancient Biblical reference is from Genesis 3, when God speaks these words Adam and Eve: "You are dust, and to dust you shall return."

In a day when the grand promise of human progress and potential has come to some not-so-grand ends, it is necessary for all Christians to bear public witness to the fact that we human beings do not have the final word in life. We are not all good, all powerful, all loving; only God is, and we must recognize it.

During the service, we will make a statement of confession and recognize our human limitation through the ashes. We appreciate your presence at the Ash Wednesday Service whether you come forward to participate in the imposition of ashes or choose to remain seated during this part of the service.

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
