THOUGHT FOR PREPARATION

The imperfect is our paradise.
Note that, in this bitterness, delight,
Since the imperfect is so hot in us,
Lies in flawed words and stubborn sounds.

Wallace Stevens, "The Poems of our Climate," 1942

PRELUDE

Truth

I won't point any fingers
I won't say it was you
I let life take it's time
And in time you see the truth

* WELCOMING EACH OTHER

* CALL TO WORSHIP

One: I will sing of your steadfast love, O Lord, forever.

ALL: With my mouth, I will declare your faithfulness to this generation and all generations.

One: Your steadfast love is established forever.

ALL: Your faithfulness is forever steady, vaster than the heavens.

One: You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one."

ALL: Following you, we have established our own covenant with you and each other: to affirm the goodness of every life, welcoming all into the embracing arms of your Church.

One: For our strength is measured in our ability to love others as you love us.

ALL: By your favor, our burdens are lifted. For your steadfast love endures all things.

\ Please stand if you are able to do so.*

* HYMN

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

1. Come, O Fount of ev - ery bless - ing, tune my heart to sing your grace;
2. Here I pause in my so - journ - ing, giv - ing thanks for hav - ing come,
3. O to grace how great a debt - or dai - ly I am drawn a - new!

Came to res - cue me from dan - ger, bless - ed bod - y, pre - cious blood.
Here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for your ver - y own.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Jeff Carlson

O Lord,
Too often we forget ourselves to appease our present. We forget that we are wonderfully made, not only our own, impossibly vast
and impossibly capable of loving difference
and embracing change.
We confess that we have made what is simple and beautiful abstract and unavailable:
your miracle of unfathomable grace and its reflection in the eyes of our siblings.
We hide from you.
We do not need to know you.
We need to love you.
In thanksgiving and with your mercy
we pray for guidance
as we keep practicing our hallelujahs. Amen.

MOMENT OF SILENT PRAYER

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

ANTHEM

Beautiful

Diana Perez

Diana Perez, vocalist; and Alex Hansen, piano arr. Alex Hansen

Will I be enough . . .
Will I be enough for you Lord?
If I am enough,
Help me to accept that I am.

Wonderfully made,
I'm precious in your eyes.
You're beautiful to me,
And I'm the same to you.

I'm knitted and woven
And crafted created in glory.
I'm everything to you.

Search me, know me, call me beautiful.
Embrace me, secure me, I am called your own.

Every lie gives weight.
Every lie it kills me softly.
Every lie destroys.
Immerse me in your truth that I am . . .

Wonderfully made; . . .

More than enough,
Worthy of love,
There's no place I can't go.
You hold my heart and my soul.

Text by Diana Perez with inspiration from Psalm 139

SCRIPTURE

Karen E. Johnson

Jeremiah 29:4–14

Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let the prophets and the diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to your dreams that you dream, for it is a lie that they are prophesying to you in my name; I did not send them, says the Lord.

For thus says the Lord: Only when Babylon's seventy years are completed will I visit you, and I will fulfill to you my promise and bring you back to this place. For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart, I will let you find me, says the Lord.

* STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

RITE OF FAREWELL

Matt: In 2020, St. Pauls invited Benny VanDerburgh to serve as Pastoral Intern and then as Pastoral Associate.

Benny: I thank St. Pauls Church, its members and friends, for the love, kindness and support shown me these past years. I'm grateful for the ways my leadership has been accepted. I ask forgiveness for mistakes I have made. As I leave, I carry with me all that I have learned and done here.

People: We receive your gratitude, offer forgiveness, and accept that you now leave your pastoral role. We express our gratitude for your ministry among us. We ask your forgiveness for our mistakes. Your influence on our faith and faithfulness will not be forgotten.

Benny: I forgive you and accept your gratitude, trusting that both our time together and our parting are pleasing to God.

Matt: Do you, the members and friends of St. Pauls Church, release Benny from his pastoral duties to you?

People: We do, with the help of God.

Jeff: Will you offer your encouragement as his path of ministry unfolds in new ways?

People: We will with the help of God.

Jeff: Do you, Benny, release this local church from turning to you and depending on you?

Benny: I do, with the help of God.

Matt: Do you offer your encouragement for us and our ministry here as we continue to serve St. Pauls?

Benny: I do, with the help of God.

All: Thanks be to God! Let us pray together.

TODAY'S MUSIC

Truth is the opening song on the 2017 EP, Harmony of Difference, by Kamasi Washington (b.1981). Mr. Washington is a jazz saxophonist, born and raised in Los Angeles. He studied in the Department of Ethnomusicology at UCLA. As a student, he was invited to play with a faculty quartet. In addition to his solo career, he has collaborated with musicians in jazz, hip-hop, and pop music.

The text for God Is Here! As We Your People Meet was written in 1971 by Fred Pratt Green (1903-2000). Born in Liverpool, he was one of the most prominent hymnodists in Britain and became a Methodist minister. The tune, ABBOT'S LEIGH, was composed in 1941 by Cyril Vincent Taylor (1907-1992). Taylor was both a musician and a priest of the Church of England. He composed 20 hymns and edited a number of hymnals.

Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing, to the tune NETTLETON, is from the rich American tradition of the Sacred Harp hymnals, specifically Wyeth's Repository Of Sacred Music. The text was written by Robert Robinson (1735-1790), who began his professional life as an apprentice to a hairdresser before committing himself to a religious life.

Our Offertory Anthem, Let Their Celestial Concerts All Unite, is from the oratorio Samson. It was composed the same year, 1741, as George Frideric Handel (1685-1759) penned Messiah, but it was first performed in 1743 in London, a year following Messiah's debut in Dublin. Samson is, of course, the story of the rise and fall of the Hebrew Bible hero Samson.

Diana Perez and Alex Hansen both are June 2022 graduates of Elmhurst University. They have formed a duo, Diial. You can find them on Spotify. Beautiful is a collaborative work. Diana has a musical presence on Facebook, Sound Cloud and other platforms. Alex can be found on Spotify as ahans. We are so grateful that they will share their music and friendship today.

Be Thou My Vision is a lovely Irish folk tune, SLANE. The translation was made in 1905 from the original Gaelic by Mary E. Byrne (1880-1931), who was born in Ireland.

De colores is a folk song from the rich resources of Mexican music. It gained wide popularity when it was sung at meetings and marches of the United Farm Workers. Our New Century Hymnal was the first to share it with a wider audience and the translation is unattributed.

The text for Love Divine, All Loves Excelling was written by Charles Wesley (1707-1788). His brother, John, was the founder of the Methodist faith. The words are set to the famous Welsh tune, HYFRYDOL by Rowan Hugh Prichard (1811-1887) when he was only 19. We also sing this tune to the text Alleluia! Hearts to Heaven. This text is one of the few that is the source of a “hymn battle” over which tune to sing. The other well-known tune for this text is BEECHER.

A Gaelic Blessing was composed in 1978 by John Rutter (b.1945). The text is from an old Gaelic rune. It is another work that was commissioned by Mel Olson, who was the church choir director that Kurt R. Hansen grew up with in Omaha and who was largely responsible for introducing John Rutter and his music to this country.

Tuba Tune Op. 15 was composed by Craig Sellar Lang (1891-1971). It is one of his most popular pieces and programmed on many organ recitals in order to feature, in our case, the antiphonal Trompette-en-chamade. He was a New Zealand-born British organist, academic, and composer, especially for choirs and organ. He was a student of Charles Villers Stanford, noted organist and composer, and he also wrote scholarly books on sight-singing for examinations.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEXT SUNDAY - SHARE THE TABLE OF JESUS

We're collecting food for the Common Pantry every communion Sunday - which is next week. St. Pauls helped found the pantry in 1967. Unexpired food and personal items most needed are listed below. Modest-sized products are best for distribution to the folks they serve (e.g., a few 24 oz. containers of cooking oil are preferable to one 64 oz. container). Items can be left in the bin in the Narthex.

Needed Items: cereal (whole grain, less sugar varieties), nuts, brown rice, jelly/jam (low sugar), peanut butter (natural, no hydrogenated oils), cooking oil, pasta sauce (low sodium), soup (low sodium), easy prep meals (e.g., Hamburger Helper, low sodium or whole grain varieties if possible), ground coffee, toothpaste, deodorant, disposable razors, shampoo, conditioner, mouthwash.

COMMON PANTRY

JOIN THE MOVEMENT - provided by SPARC

Reparations Means Repair – Jemar Tisby: “At no time since the abolition of slavery has the nation ever made widespread and sustained effort to financially compensate Black people for the theft of their labor. People too often mistake the dismantling of certain discriminatory practices for progress. The racial wealth gap is the bleeding wound of racism that will not heal apart from a comprehensive and substantive policy of financial reparations for Black people in America. Before asking about the complexity or popularity of reparations, first ask whether it is right. Reparations simply means repair.”

CREATION CORNER - provided by Green Team

REDUCE PLASTIC CONSUMPTION. You are invited!

- Stop buying old-style, landfill-bound, single-use plastic containers. Use non-liquid, dissolvable, concentrated tablets for soaps and cleaners. Mailed to you in minimal, recyclable packaging, the tablets are ready to drop into reusable bottles.
- You can take your own refillable containers to “Eco and the Flamingo” and fill with cleaning and health/beauty products. <https://www.ecoandflamingo.com>
- Many products are available plastic-free: shampoo, conditioner, laundry detergent, soap, etc. Switch to bar soap and shampoo, choosing organic, natural, chemical-free.
- Many companies are looking out for the earth and donating to causes supporting the environment.
- Read labels and fine print very carefully.

In 1959, Prince Edward County closed its public school system rather than desegregate per the Supreme Court's 1954 Brown v. Board of Education decision. Most White students went to private academies, leaving more than 2,000 Black students without formal education until the federal courts required the public schools to reopen in 1964. TRTH traces the steps taken in recent years to redress the wounds of these Black students, resulting in the first civil rights era reparation in the United States. Jim Brandt will lead this two-session discussion after worship on July 24 and August 14, 2022. Please RSVP here: spucc.churchcenter.com/registrations/events/1337600

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
