PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Matt Fitzgerald

We need your presence right now, Lord.
We need you during these violent days between the despair of history
and the judgment to come.
We need you with us.
Forgive our resistance and our disbelief.
Forgive our insistence on judging others and ourselves.
Forgive our refusal to be silent, so you might speak.
Jesus, stand among us, in your risen power.
Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Psalm 82

*God calls the judges into his courtroom,
He puts all the judges in the dock.*

“Enough! You’ve corrupted justice long enough, you’ve let the wicked get away with murder.
You’re here to defend the defenseless,
to make sure that underdogs get a fair break;
Your job is to stand up for the powerless,
and prosecute all those who exploit them.”

*Ignorant judges! Head-in-the-sand judges!
They are completely corrupt.
And now everything’s falling apart,
the world’s coming unglued.*

“I appointed you judges, each one of you,
deputies of the High God,
Yet you will die like mortals;
you will fall like all the other rulers.”

*Rise up, O God, and execute judgment on the earth!
All the nations are yours.*

* STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

Following Worship, all are invited for coffee and snacks in the Social Hall.

TODAY'S MUSIC

The Chancel Choir is on summer break and will return September 11.

Our Prelude is the Adagio movement from the Oboe Concerto in D Minor published in 1717 by Alessandro Marcello (1673-1747). He was an Italian Baroque composer living at the same time as Bach. He was a nobleman and considered a musical dilettante. In addition, he was also a philosopher, poet and mathematician. Bach felt so strongly about this work that he transcribed it as a concerto as Harpsichord in D minor BWV 974.

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise, tune ST. DENIO, is based on an early 19th century traditional Welsh ballad. The text was composed in 1867 by Walter C. Smith (1824-1908), who was the pastor of the Scottish Church in London.

The text for Amazing Grace is by John Newton (1725-1807), who was a slave ship captain but became an Anglican clergy and fervent abolitionist. He once said that writing this text saved his soul. The tune, NEW BRITAIN, is most likely an African American spiritual and was first published in 1829.

There Is a Balm in Gilead is a Black Spiritual. In the Hebrew Bible, Gilead was the name of the mountainous region east of the Jordan River. This region was known for having skillful physicians and an ointment made from the gum of a tree indigenous to that area. Many believed that this balm had miraculous powers to heal the body. In the book of Jeremiah, God tells the people of Israel that though many believe in the mysterious healing power of this balm, they can't trust in those powers for spiritual healing or as a relief of their oppression.

The Siciliana is a movement from the Oboe Sonata in A Minor BWV 41: a3 by Georg Philipp Telemann (1681-1767). The siciliana is a well known Baroque Italian dance form. Bach often made use of that style especially in the opening chorus of his St. Matthew Passion. It is hard for us to imagine, but Telemann was much more famous and respected than his peer Johann Sebastian Bach. He was largely self-taught, pursued music against his family's wishes, and held important court positions in Hamburg. He also played oboe, which explains his deep connection to music for his instrument.

Marcel Dupré (1886-1971) was one of the preeminent organists and composers for that instrument of the first half of the 20th century. He was the organist for many years at St. Sulpice in Paris, following Widor in that position. His Antiphon III is part of a larger set of 15 antiphons composed in 1919. The "melody" is based on the chant of a particular antiphon. The Third Antiphon is inspired by the Song of Solomon 1:5, and is from Vêpres du Commun des Fêtes de la Sainte Vierge, (Communion Vespers for the Virgin) Opus 18.

The text for My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less was written in 1834 by Edward Mote (1797-1874). British born Mote wrote a number of hymn texts after a spiritual awakening as a result of the preaching of an evangelical preacher. He also authored a number of Christian pamphlets. SOLID ROCK was composed in 1863 by the prolific hymn writer, William Bradbury (1816-1868). He was raised on his father's farm in Maine. He developed a love for music as a child and began playing the organ in church by age 15. Among the best known of his hymns is the children's hymn, Jesus Loves Me, This I Know.

Fugue in G minor was composed by Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750). Bach is the acknowledged master of fugue composition. A fugue is a much more complex version of a round usually involving 4 to 5 layered voices using the same theme, but entering at different times and starting on different pitches.

REFUGEEONE BACK-TO-SCHOOL DRIVE

RefugeeOne is holding their annual Back-to-School drive. They are looking for backpacks and supplies for 400 children! Drop-off your donations after worship in the Narthex on Sundays, July, 17, 24, or 31; or at Unity Lutheran Church (1212 W. Balmoral, Chicago 60640) on Saturday, August 6th from 11am to 1pm. ### LINCOLN PARK ZOO ELECTRONICS RECYCLING

Recycle old cell phones, small electronic devices, and battery chargers at Lincoln Park Zoo Searle Visitor Center now through September 24. Lincoln Park Zoo is partnering with institutions across the globe for “Gorillas on the Line.” This cell phone recycling initiative directly supports gorilla conservation. Coltan (used to manufacture small electronics) is hand-mined in the Democratic Republic of Congo prime gorilla habitat. The deforestation of coltan mining displaces these critically endangered species. “‘Gorillas on the Line’ is a reminder there are ways to take small daily actions to help save species – no matter where you live!” said Curator of Primates Jill Moyse. lpzoo.org/gorillas-on-the-line-will-you-answer-the-call

JOIN THE MOVEMENT - provided by SPARC

CREATION CORNER - provided by Green Team

REDUCE PLASTIC CONSUMPTION. You are invited!

- Switch to biodegradable trash bags.
- Use wooden clothespins instead of plastic clips.
- Buy in bulk, choosing large packages and parcel out small servings into reusable containers.
- Choose baby products and toys made from sustainable, natural resources; ones that can also be passed along numerous times to other families.
- If you haven’t made a survey of your home and work space yet for plastics you can eliminate, do it now!
- Making a change is easier when you have support. Challenge your family, friends, and others to become more aware of plastic. Discuss what you can do.

JOIN BOUNCE HOUSE MINISTRY!

Our friends at UCAN often rent bounce houses for their events. St. Pauls has a bounce house. Pastor Jeff is looking to form a team that could be a bounce house ministry for UCAN events - set up the house, monitor it during use and then take it down at the end of the event. It could be a great way for us to serve UCAN's kids in North Lawndale. The first event is Foster Parent Appreciation Picnic, 3605 W. Fillmore St., Friday, August 19 from 4-7 p.m. Let Pastor Jeff know if you'd like to be a part of this team at jcarlson@spucc.org.

JULY 24, AUG 14 - SPARC DISCUSSION: THE ROAD TO HEALING - 11 a.m., Oscar

Mayer Room. Please join us to discuss The Road to Healing: A Civil Rights Reparations Story in Prince Edward County, Virginia (TRTH) by Ken Woodley, local newspaper editor. As he states, "The narrative unfolds in Virginia but it is a deeply American story. Prince Edward County's ongoing journey of reconciliation blazes a hopeful and redemptive trail throughout difficult human terrain, but the signs are clear enough for a divided nation to follow: We cannot erase the past. The future belongs to someone else. This moment is ours...There can be racial reconciliation. There can be healing." ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
