PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Jeff Carlson

We give you this prayer
 in all humility, Lord.
 How can we be proud
 when asking you for mercy?
 In Christ's grace,
 we see our cautious love;
 In his giving, our tight grip;
 In his justice, our prejudice;
 In his love, our divisions;
 In his innocence, our sins.

Yet, Christ's cross is our forgiveness.
 Christ's resurrection is our hope.
 We claim both in his name.
 Give them to us.
 Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Luke 14: 1 and 7-14

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable.

"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place.

But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you.

For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted." He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the outcast, and misfits and oddballs who never get invited out. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of God's people."

 STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

Avena Ward

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen.

POSTLUDE

For the Beauty of the Earth
St. Arbucks Quartet

arr. Craig Curry

If you would like someone to pray with you today, Stephen Ministers are present after the postlude at the right front of the Sanctuary.

Following Worship, all are invited for coffee and snacks in the Social Hall.

TODAY'S MUSIC

The Chancel Choir is on summer break and will return on September 11.

This setting of Morning Has Broken was composed by Keith Chapman (1945-1989). He was an American concert organist and composer. He was the Principal Organist of the famous Wanamaker Organ in Philadelphia. The tune, BUNESSAN, that we know so well is a Gaelic melody.

To You O God, All Creatures Sing is a text that was adapted by Sister Miriam Therese Winter (b. 1938). She is a Catholic theologian and also a Medical Mission Sister that has worked in a number war torn areas including Ethiopia and Cambodia. The German hymn tune, LASST UNS ERFREUEN, dates from 1623 and was first found in a hymnal published in Cologne, Germany.

The text for Morning Has Broken was written by Elinor Farjeon (1881-1965), who also wrote children's books. The tune, BUNESSAN, that we know so well is a Gaelic melody.

I Will Lift the Cloud of Night was composed and text also written by Charles P. Jones (1865–1949) in 1910. The tune is the composer's last name, JONES. The Reverend Jones was African American and founder of the Church of Christ. He composed more than 1,000 gospel hymns, both music and texts.

Natalie Douglass Grana, who plays our Offertory today, is a member of our Chancel Choir. She is on the music faculty at both Lake Forest College and DePaul University. She is a published author on Oxford University Press, a Fulbright Scholar, and received her Doctorate of Musical Arts from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.

Wolfgang Amedeus Mozart (1756-1791) composed his Horn Concerto No. 2 in E flat Major, K. 417 in 1783 at the height of his musical powers. In the same year, he composed the “Linz” Symphony No. 36, K. 425, two concerti for piano, a rarely performed opera, L'oca del Cairo, K. 422, and the great Mass in C minor, K. 427. It is hard to fathom the sheer brilliance and output of Mozart in his all too short 35 years.

The text for Thank Our God for Sisters, Brothers was written in 1948 by Rev. Roger Powell (1914-2003). The text was composed for a Thanksgiving service. Rev. Powell served as pastor of a baptist church in Camillus, NY. HOLY MANNA is an unattributed melody from the great American series of shaped-note hymnals from the early 19th century including The Sacred Harp.

Craig Curry, who arranged this great hymn tune, For the Beauty of the Earth, is a graduate of Wheaton College Conservatory of Music and the University of Miami. He is an active composer whose arrangements and compositions have been widely performed.

WELCOME, ASSOCIATE PASTOR LIZ NICKERSON

We are excited to announce that Pastor Liz Nickerson has been hired as St. Pauls next Associate Pastor! Liz has deep roots in Chicago and comes to St. Pauls from Southminster Presbyterian Church in Arlington Heights, where she served as the Associate Pastor for Family Ministry.

Liz is organized, creative, thoughtful, and full of enthusiasm for St. Pauls. She is a gifted preacher, who won the award for pulpit excellence upon graduating from McCormick Theological Seminary. She knows how to plan and follow through, skills built in her time and training as an architect. She is collegially minded, and eager to join our team. She and her husband are raising their family in our neighborhood, and understand the challenge and promise of ministry in Lincoln Park. Her years of pastoral experience leave her with a thorough sense of what it takes to revitalize and lead our Sunday School.

Liz will join the St. Pauls staff full-time on October 1. Her collaborative leadership style will make her a wonderful addition to our staff. On Sunday, September 11, Liz will join us for worship as we kick off our Fall programming. Mark the date, and plan to meet your new pastor as we welcome her to St. Pauls together!

ABOUT THE PROCESS

Hiring decisions for Associate Pastors at St. Pauls are made by the Executive Committee of the Church Council and the Senior Pastor. This effort began in January with a job description written by the Youth and Children's Ministry Revitalization Task Force. This description and our Local Church Profile were posted on the UCC's national job board.

We received interest from more than twenty pastors. Applications were reviewed and applicants were screened in three phases by Pastor Matt and our Interview Team. The Interview Team members were Nancy Curotto, Sharon Collins, Ben Emmrich, Renae Bradshaw, Justin Hartanov, and Pastor Matt.

After receiving enthusiastic feedback about Pastor Liz following the first two steps in this process, the Interview Team viewed several of her sermons and met with Liz for group interviews. These concluded with the Team's unanimous agreement that she would be an excellent Associate Pastor for St. Pauls. The Executive Committee shared the Interview Team's excitement and agreed, unanimously, to extend a call, inviting Rev. Liz Nickerson to serve as an Associate Pastor as the third member of St. Pauls pastoral staff.

Pick up a hard copy of the full announcement and letter from Pastor Liz in the Narthex, or see it online here: mailchi.mp/spucc/welcome_pastor_liz

St. Pauls Green Team Occasional Note:

Get All Excited: Climate Impact of the Inflation Reduction Act

President Joe Biden signed the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022 (Act) into law on August 16, 2022. Although not perfect, it is indeed good news! For the Act to be adopted and overcome political stalemate, significant compromises had to be made and a number of important provisions of the original package – the Build Back Better Act – were cut. This note covers only those provisions of the Act directly affecting the environment.

The Act is considered a landmark achievement. It is the first major federal legislation to address climate change and includes $369B in federal funding for climate and clean energy programs. According to Earthjustice, an environmental legal advocacy organization, “Finally, we have legislation that begins to match spending with the true scale of the climate crisis, and we now have a path to just-in-time solutions.” Experts estimate that by 2030, the Act will enable the U.S. to reduce carbon pollution by 35-45% over 2005 levels, create up to 1.5M jobs and help prevent up to 3,900 premature deaths.

Among the Act’s more important environmental provisions are:

Clean Power – the first linchpin to de-carbonize the economy. The Act includes clean energy tax credits, government loan guarantees to leverage private sector investment in clean energy (i.e., wind, solar, hydro, geothermal, etc.) technologies, and rural electricity investments.

Clean Transportation – this sector creates the greatest share of greenhouse gas pollution. The Act includes electric vehicle (EVs) tax credits for new and used EVs, investment in creating zero-emission heavy duty vehicles, and investment in domestic clean vehicle manufacturing.

Clean Buildings – The “built environment” accounts for 13% of national greenhouse gasses. The Act includes rebates for home electrification and energy efficiency (i.e., heat pumps, electric appliances, etc.) and tax credits for “efficient” residential and commercial buildings.

Oil and Gas Leasing – Several extremely controversial provisions in the Act concern “giveaways” to fossil fuel corporations; in fact, two provisions mandate oil and gas leasing on American public land under certain circumstances.

According to Rev. Brooks Berndt, UCC Minister for Environmental Justice, “After many long years in which climate legislation from Congress seemed like an impossibility to many, I believe this is the first chapter to a new story. This new story tells us that change is possible and that we can make a difference for the sake of justice and for the sake of God’s creation. This legislation will embolden and renew us for continued struggle, so that this story of hope and possibility keeps unfolding.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

REGISTER FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL!

If you plan to have your child or youth participate in Sunday School during the 2022-2023 school year, we ask that you please register them at the link below. This is a one-time registration for the school year. Please register each child who will be attending. Sunday School is open to children 2-years-old to high school. Our Nursery will be open for children under age 2. Email questions to Children's Program Coordinator Danielle Mayfield at danielle.mayfield@spucc.org.

NEXT SUNDAY - SHARE THE TABLE OF JESUS

We're collecting food for the Common Pantry every communion Sunday - which is next week. St. Pauls helped found the pantry in 1967. Unexpired food and personal items most needed are listed below. Modest-sized products are best for distribution to the folks they serve (e.g., a few 24 oz. containers of cooking oil are preferable to one 64 oz. container). Items can be left in the bin in the Narthex.

Needed Items: cereal (whole grain, less sugar varieties), nuts, brown rice, jelly/jam (low sugar), peanut butter (natural, no hydrogenated oils), cooking oil, pasta sauce (low sodium), soup (low sodium), easy prep meals (e.g., Hamburger Helper, low sodium or whole grain varieties if possible), ground coffee, toothpaste, deodorant, disposable razors, shampoo, conditioner, mouthwash.

SAINT PAULS PRAYS

Please clip this page and pray for those who are named below. To have your prayer request included, simply ask a pastor in person, on the phone or by email.

Our practice is to run each prayer request for four weeks and then remove it. If you would like to continue a prayer request after four weeks, let a pastor know.

- Tom Henry in the hospital.
- Annie Johnson at the death of her mother, Jean.
- Pat Ruch and Al Cernak as they navigate complicated medical care issues.
- Becky Blank, her husband, Hanns Kuttner, and their daughter Emily as Becky undergoes treatment for an aggressive form of cancer.
- Michael Toomin as he recovers from a back injury and is undergoing physical therapy.
- Sergio, grandson of Ivy Sanz, who doctors are concerned might have leukemia.
- Carole Crowley, recovering from a stroke.

Prayer, Support, Mental Health Resources

Even when you walk through the valley of shadows, God is with you. If you or someone you love is feeling completely alone or like life doesn't matter, reach out for help. Help is available for every kind of issue. Contact one of the pastors today for support, referrals, and information that can help you and your loved ones.

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
