* WELCOMING EACH OTHER

* CALL TO WORSHIP (Psalm 100)

One: Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth!

All: Worship God with gladness and a song!

One: God is good! God made us and we are God's very own.

All: We are God's people, held in God's hand.

One: Enter this sanctuary with thanksgiving and fill these pews with praise.

All: For God's love endures forever.

And God is faithful to every generation.

 Please stand if you are able to do so.*

* HYMN

God, We Thank You for Your People

1. God, we thank you for our peo-ple, roots dug deep with-in the soil,
2. Thank you, God, for gen-tle plea-sure: les-sons learned and se-crets told,
3. Still we must con-fess be-fore you, some-times, Sav-ior, we have failed;
4. By your Spir-it of cre-a-tion keep us bold for risk-ing still, har-dy spir-its, rich in lov-ing, strong for strug-gle, bold for toil.

hopes and mem-ories saved as trea-sure, passed to young ones by the old, though we wor-ship and a-dore you, some-times love has not pre-vailed.
ea-ger in an-ti-ci-pa-tion, ev-er strong to do your will.

Faith-ful Rock of gen-er-a-tions, you whom par-ents' par-ents praised:
Pranks and glo-ries, songs and sto-ries, food by lov-ing hands pre-pared.
Tem-pers rac-ing, dev-il chas-ing, hearts es-tranged by ice or flame
Bind us close to one an-oth-er, shar-ing life and death and birth,

Here in hope as we re-mem-ber may our song to you be raised.
God, we bless you for your pres-ence in our tears and laugh-ter shared.
You trans-form by ways for-giv-ing. Grace a-maz-ing! Grace, your name!
Wel-com-ing as sis-ter, broth-er, all your chil-dren on the earth.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Psalm 139)

O God, I am an open book to you;
you already know what I am thinking.
You know when I sit down and when I rise.
Even before a word is on my tongue,
you know it completely.
You know me inside and out,
better than I know myself.
Investigate my life, O God;
find out everything about me.
Cross-examine and test me,
get a clear picture of what I'm about;
See if there is any hurtful way in me,
then guide me on the road to life.

MOMENT OF SILENT PRAYER

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

v. 1

1. What a friend we have in Je - sus, all our sins and griefs to bear!
 2. Have we tri - als and temp - ta - tions? Is there trou - ble an - y - where?
 3. Are we weak and heav - y lad - en, bur - dened with a load of care?

What a priv - i - lege to car - ry ev - ery - thing to God in prayer!
 We should nev - er be dis - cour - aged; take it to our God in prayer!
 Pre - cious Sav - ior, still our ref - uge, take it to our God in prayer!

Oh, what peace we of - ten for - feit, oh, what need - less pain we bear,
 Can we find a friend so faith - ful, who will all our sor - rows share?
 Do your friends de - spise, for - sake you? Take it to our God in prayer!

All be - cause we do not car - ry ev - ery - thing to God in prayer.
 Je - sus knows our ev - ery weak - ness; take it to our God in prayer!
 Je - sus' arms will take and shield you; you will find a sol - ace there.

Hebrews 11-12, excerpts

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval.

By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned. By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days. By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection. Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented— of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.

Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better so that they would not, without us, be made perfect.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Consider him who endured such hostility against himself from sinners, so that you may not grow weary or lose heart.

 STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.
We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

POSTLUDE

TODAY'S MUSIC

The text for Morning Has Broken was written by Elinor Farjeon (1881-1965), who also wrote children's books. The tune we know so well, BUNESSAN, is a Gaelic melody.

Joseph Medcott Scriven (1819-1886) wrote the famous text for What a Friend We Have in Jesus in 1855. He was an Irish immigrant to Canada. His life was full of ill health and grief, which he worked out in Christian poetry. The tune, ERIE, is also known as CONVERSE and was composed in 1868 by John C. Converse (1832 - 1918), who grew up in Erie, Pennsylvania, which explains both tune names. He was an attorney who also composed "church songs." He studied both law and music in Leipzig before returning to this country.

Both the text and tune of Jerusalem, My Happy Home, are of unknown authorship. The earliest version of the text dates from 1565. LAND OF REST is an American folk melody first published in 1832 in The Christian Harp hymnal.

Ain'-a That Good News is a great spiritual from the African American tradition. The arranger, William L. Dawson (1898-1990), was choral director for many years at the Tuskegee Institute of Alabama. He was responsible along with others of his generation, such as Hall Johnson, for making beautiful arrangements of spirituals that spread the performance and popularity of that music within and beyond the African American community. The Tuskegee Choir gained international stature under Dr. Dawson's leadership.

The author of the text of For All the Saints was William Walsham How (1823-1897). He penned the poetry we love so much in 1864. How was an Oxford graduate and served many parishes in England throughout his life. Just to prove there can be a sense of humor even in hymn tune names, SINE NOMINE, means "no name" in Latin. The stirring music was written in 1906 by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958). He is one of the greatest English composers of the post-Victorian era and composed music for nearly all genres of performance.

WELCOME, ASSOCIATE PASTOR LIZ NICKERSON

We are excited to announce that Pastor Liz Nickerson has been hired as St. Pauls next Associate Pastor! Liz has deep roots in Chicago and comes to St. Pauls from Southminster Presbyterian Church in Arlington Heights, where she served as the Associate Pastor for Family Ministry.

Liz is organized, creative, thoughtful, and full of enthusiasm for St. Pauls. She is a gifted preacher, who won the award for pulpit excellence upon graduating from McCormick Theological Seminary. She knows how to plan and follow through, skills built in her time and training as an architect. She is collegially minded, and eager to join our team. She and her husband are raising their family in our neighborhood, and understand the challenge and promise of ministry in Lincoln Park. Her years of pastoral experience leave her with a thorough sense of what it takes to revitalize and lead our Sunday School.

Liz will join the St. Pauls staff full-time on October 3. Her collaborative leadership style will make her a wonderful addition to our staff.

ABOUT THE PROCESS

Hiring decisions for Associate Pastors at St. Pauls are made by the Executive Committee of the Church Council and the Senior Pastor. This effort began in January with a job description written by the Youth and Children's Ministry Revitalization Task Force. This description and our Local Church Profile were posted on the UCC's national job board.

We received interest from more than twenty pastors. Applications were reviewed and applicants were screened in three phases by Pastor Matt and our Interview Team. The Interview Team members were Nancy Curotto, Sharon Collins, Ben Emmrich, Renae Bradshaw, Justin Hartanov, and Pastor Matt.

After receiving enthusiastic feedback about Pastor Liz following the first two steps in this process, the Interview Team viewed several of her sermons and met with Liz for group interviews. These concluded with the Team's unanimous agreement that she would be an excellent Associate Pastor for St. Pauls. The Executive Committee shared the Interview Team's excitement and agreed, unanimously, to extend a call, inviting Rev. Liz Nickerson to serve as an Associate Pastor as the third member of St. Pauls pastoral staff.

Pick up a hard copy of the full announcement and letter from Pastor Liz in the Narthex, or see it online here: mailchi.mp/spucc/welcome_pastor_liz

RECYCLE CRAYONS, MARKERS, HIGHLIGHTERS, GLUE STICKS & MORE!

Sponsored By Green Team & Little Lights

Overconsumption and a throwaway culture have led to our global waste crisis. While waste piles up in landfills damaging our environment, virgin materials are used for new products. Crayons are one example of a petroleum product that takes years to biodegrade. Help divert these items from landfills or incineration. Collect these school, office, and art supplies and place them in designated boxes in the Narthex.

- All crayons - broken, used, new, wrapped or not (separate box than rest)

ELECTION WATCH 2022: UCC's "Our Faith Our Vote"

Our denomination, the United Church of Christ, strongly supports involvement in voting, elections and policy making. It's part of our congregational DNA. The UCC's "Our Faith Our Vote" campaign is the UCC's ongoing commitment to equip churches and members with the tools for non-partisan, faithful engagement in our democratic process; it involves voter registration, issue education and voter empowerment. According to UCC General Minister and President Rev. John Dorhauer, "Politics is often taken to be a dirty word... For people of faith, public policy is never merely politics. It is a way of living out the commandment to love our neighbor as ourselves." Rev. Traci Blackmon, UCC Associate General Minister of Justice and Local Church Ministries, adds, "We are the church. We're not going to tell you who to vote for. But I am going to tell you to vote for yourself, for your principles, for what you say you live by." Be involved! www.ucc.org

Does your home's deed contain racist language? While they are no longer enforceable, restrictive racial covenants exist in many deeds for older properties. In fact, Chicago, which has a long history of racial segregation in housing, played an outsized role in the spread of restrictive covenants. But as the old buildings came down, cheap studios were combined to create ever more spacious, luxurious homes. Property values rose and people were evicted and conflict developed: Who is this neighborhood for? And who gets to decide? We'll discuss the book by Daniel Kay Hertz. Discover what St. Pauls was up to during these years. Sign up to attend here: spucc.churchcenter.com/registrations/events/1445978.

Please clip this page and pray for those who are named below. To have your prayer request included, simply ask a pastor in person, on the phone or by email.

- Pat Kirby, facing serious health issues that may lead to blindness.
- Mary Stainton, for her operation on 9/21.

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.

Associate Pastor Jeff Carlson, jcarlson@spucc.org
Pastor Emeritus Tom Henry, October 6, 1943 - August 27, 2022
