SCRIPTURE

Steve Schwartzberg

Luke 14:25-27

Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: "If anyone comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be my disciple. And whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple."

SOLO

Gebet (Prayer)
Kurt R. Hansen, tenor
Nathan Laube, organ

Hugo Wolf
transcribed by Max Reger

Herr, schicke, was du willst,
Ein Liebes oder Leides!
Ich bin vergnügt, dass beides
Aus deinen Händen quillt.

*Lord, send what you will,
Whether love or sorrow!
I am content that either
Comes from your hand.*

Wollest mit Freuden
Und wollest mit Leiden
Mich nicht überschütten!
Doch in der Mitten
Liegt holdes Bescheiden.

*Do as you wish with joy
And do as you will with sorrow
But do not lavish extremes on me!
Rather a balance of both is my greatest hope.*

TODAY'S MUSIC

It is a joy to welcome Nathan Laube back to St. Pauls. He will play a recital here this afternoon at 2 p.m. in memory of Larry Butcher. Please plan to come! The recital will also be streamed on our website.

He has performed in the most famous churches and cathedrals of Europe, including Notre-Dame Cathedral and Saint-Sulpice in Paris, St. Paul's Cathedral in London, the Frauenkirche in Dresden, and the Berlin Dom. He will return to the faculty at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York, this fall.

The Chancel Choir is on summer break and will return September 11.

Our Prelude is I Don't Feel No Ways Tired composed in 1980 by the Reverend James Cleveland (1931-1991). He was inspired by the exclamation of an elderly woman in his congregation. She'd had a hard life with pain, disappointment, and mistreatment "just because of who she was." She found strength in her faith, redemption in Christ, and liberation in the Holy Spirit. Her words and fortitude inspired the Reverend Cleveland. He also carried on the tradition started by Thomas A. Dorsey fusing the spirit filled music of gospel with the energy and drive of jazz. Muzette Morgan, our longtime alto section leader and member of St. Pauls, introduced this song to us.

Sing Praise to God is another great hymn from our German heritage. The tune, LOBE DEN HERRN, is the first line of the first stanza of the German text. The composer of the music is unknown and it was first published in a hymnal in 1668. The original text was written by Joachim Neander (1650-1680). Although he was reported to have spent a “riotous youth,” he became the first important hymn writer of the German Reform Church. This updated translation was made in 1993 for our New Century Hymnal by Madeleine Forell Marshall (b. 1946).

Were You There is a deeply moving African American spiritual that asks the believer to put themselves in person at the crucifixion. The believer sings, “O sometimes it causes me to tremble,” which makes the suffering of Jesus personal.

Gebet is by German poet Eduard Friedrich Mörike (1804-1875) and the music was composed in 1888 by Hugo Wolf (1860-1903). Wolf was one of the greatest Romantic composers of Lied (Songs). He organized his volumes by poets and also by translations from other languages. He was deeply devoted to the music of Richard Wagner (1813-1883). Tragically, his musical genius was “tempered” throughout his brief life by severe mental illness. His last six years were spent in and out of asylums and included one attempt at suicide. Max Reger (1873-1916) was one of the most prolific composers of the late German Romantic era. He composed a wide range of music, but he is known especially for his many works for organ.

The author of the text for The Lord's My Shepherd is Francis Rous (1679-1569), an English cleric, lawyer and Member of Parliament. It is a poetic setting of Psalm 23. BROTHER JAMES AIR was composed by James Leith Macbeth Bain (c. 1840-1925) and first published in 1915. Born in Scotland, he was a mystic, healer and poet. Although born into a devout Christian home, he rejected his traditional upbringing.

The Lullaby from Suite No. 2 for Organ was composed by American organist Calvin Hampton (1938-1984). He was born in rural Pennsylvania and raised in Ohio. He graduated from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and was organist at Calvary Episcopal Church in Manhattan for 20 years. He famously began a movement to create orchestral transcriptions of the organ.

The Creator Has a Master Plan was composed by Pharoah Sanders (b. 1940). He was born Farrell Sanders and changed his name after his conversion to Islam. He was a saxophonist known for creating “spiritual jazz,” as well as exploring the overtones on the sax. The legendary saxophonist John Coltrane, who became a close friend of Sanders, recorded this work as an almost musical mantra and featured it on his testament album, A Love Supreme.

God Is Working His Purpose Out is a favorite hymn of our recently deceased Pastor Emeritus Tom Henry. The text was written by Arthur Campbell Ainger (1841–1919) in 1894. The text demanded a muscular tune, which Martin Shaw (1916–1999) provided in 1915.

The Fugue in E-flat Major, BWV 552 is the closing piece to Johann Sebastian Bach’s (1685-1750) incredible collection, Clavier-Übung III. It is a monumental work of music for liturgical services. The Fugue is often called “St. Anne,” because the first subject of the fugue sounds exactly like the tune for O God Our Help in Ages Past. Bach had no knowledge of that tune and it is really an interesting coincidence that it sounds like our beloved English hymn. The fugue can also be considered a “Trinity fugue,” because it is in three parts: Creator, Christ and Holy Spirit.

WELCOME, ASSOCIATE PASTOR LIZ NICKERSON

We are excited to announce that Pastor Liz Nickerson has been hired as St. Pauls next Associate Pastor! Liz has deep roots in Chicago and comes to St. Pauls from Southminster Presbyterian Church in Arlington Heights, where she served as the Associate Pastor for Family Ministry.

Liz is organized, creative, thoughtful, and full of enthusiasm for St. Pauls. She is a gifted preacher, who won the award for pulpit excellence upon graduating from McCormick Theological Seminary. She knows how to plan and follow through, skills built in her time and training as an architect. She is collegially minded, and eager to join our team. She and her husband are raising their family in our neighborhood, and understand the challenge and promise of ministry in Lincoln Park. Her years of pastoral experience leave her with a thorough sense of what it takes to revitalize and lead our Sunday School.

Liz will join the St. Pauls staff full-time on October 1. Her collaborative leadership style will make her a wonderful addition to our staff. On Sunday, September 11, Liz will join us for worship as we kick off our Fall programming. Mark the date, and plan to meet your new pastor as we welcome her to St. Pauls together!

ABOUT THE PROCESS

Hiring decisions for Associate Pastors at St. Pauls are made by the Executive Committee of the Church Council and the Senior Pastor. This effort began in January with a job description written by the Youth and Children's Ministry Revitalization Task Force. This description and our Local Church Profile were posted on the UCC's national job board.

We received interest from more than twenty pastors. Applications were reviewed and applicants were screened in three phases by Pastor Matt and our Interview Team. The Interview Team members were Nancy Curotto, Sharon Collins, Ben Emmrich, Renae Bradshaw, Justin Hartanov, and Pastor Matt.

After receiving enthusiastic feedback about Pastor Liz following the first two steps in this process, the Interview Team viewed several of her sermons and met with Liz for group interviews. These concluded with the Team's unanimous agreement that she would be an excellent Associate Pastor for St. Pauls. The Executive Committee shared the Interview Team's excitement and agreed, unanimously, to extend a call, inviting Rev. Liz Nickerson to serve as an Associate Pastor as the third member of St. Pauls pastoral staff.

Pick up a hard copy of the full announcement and letter from Pastor Liz in the Narthex, or see it online here: mailchi.mp/spucc/welcome\_pastor\_liz

Get All Excited: Climate Impact of the Inflation Reduction Act

President Joe Biden signed the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022 (Act) into law on August 16, 2022. Although not perfect, it is indeed good news! For the Act to be adopted and overcome political stalemate, significant compromises were made and a number of important provisions of the original package – the Build Back Better Act – were cut. This note covers only those provisions of the Act directly affecting the environment.

The Act is considered a landmark achievement. It is the first major federal legislation to address climate change and includes $369B in federal funding for climate and clean energy programs. According to Earthjustice, an environmental legal advocacy organization, “Finally, we have legislation that begins to match spending with the true scale of the climate crisis, and we now have a path to just-in-time solutions.” Experts estimate that by 2030, the Act will enable the U.S. to reduce carbon pollution by 35-45% over 2005 levels, create up to 1.5M jobs and help prevent up to 3,900 premature deaths.

Among the Act’s more important environmental provisions are:

Clean Power – the first linchpin to de-carbonize the economy. The Act includes clean energy tax credits, government loan guarantees to leverage private sector investment in clean energy (i.e., wind, solar, hydro, geothermal, etc.) technologies, and rural electricity investments.

Clean Transportation – this sector creates the greatest share of greenhouse gas pollution. The Act includes electric vehicle (EVs) tax credits for new and used EVs, investment in creating zero-emission heavy duty vehicles, and investment in domestic clean vehicle manufacturing.

Clean Buildings – The “built environment” accounts for 13% of national greenhouse gasses. The Act includes rebates for home electrification and energy efficiency (i.e., heat pumps, electric appliances, etc.) and tax credits for “efficient” residential and commercial buildings.

Oil and Gas Leasing – Several extremely controversial provisions in the Act concern “giveaways” to fossil fuel corporations; in fact, two provisions mandate oil and gas leasing on American public land under certain circumstances.

According to Rev. Brooks Berndt, UCC Minister for Environmental Justice, “After many long years in which climate legislation from Congress seemed like an impossibility to many, I believe this is the first chapter to a new story. This new story tells us that change is possible and that we can make a difference for the sake of justice and for the sake of God’s creation. This legislation will embolden and renew us for continued struggle, so that this story of hope and possibility keeps unfolding.”

Joe Womack and Jan Fraccaro, the founding co-chairs of this group, are stepping down. They have truly nurtured and guided the Green Team with patience, devotion and knowledge through many challenges. We are immensely grateful for their service.

The recent UN climate report reads like a litany of planetary suffering. As people of faith, members of St. Pauls are called to "Care for Creation." To that end, the Green Team is seeking new members, particularly young adults and youth, as we become a Creation Justice church, recognized by the UCC. We would love to have you! If you are interested, please contact either of the new interim Green Team co-chairs, Ninon Freeman at nlanda05@yahoo.com or Rick Peterson at rnpeterson2017@gmail.com.

ABOUT ST. PAULS
Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

Saint Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, over the past 178 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.

Senior Pastor Matt Fitzgerald, mfitzgerald@spucc.org
Associate Pastor Jeff Carlson, jcarlson@spucc.org
Pastor Emeritus Tom Henry, October 6, 1943 - August 27, 2022
