INVITATION TO THE TABLE

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Christ came bathed in light, dazzling, radiant.

Forgive us, God, for accepting mediocrity and calling it spiritual.

He appeared with Elijah and Moses.

Forgive us, God, for running from our Jewish roots.

A voice shouted,

"This is my Beloved; listen!"

Give us ears to hear you shouting, Lord.

Give us eyes to see your glory.

Amen.

SCRIPTURE

David Faulkner

Mark 9:2-9

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling bright, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us set up three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, "This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!" Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

 STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in God who has created and is creating, who has come to us in Jesus Christ to reconcile and make us new,
who works in us and others by the Holy Spirit.

We trust God. God calls us to be the Church,
to celebrate God's presence,
to love and serve others,
to care for creation,
to seek justice and to resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life and death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God!

(adapted from the United Church of Canada)

JUNE 8-15 - YOUTH MISSION TRIP

Learn to "Be the Neighbor" From Leaders on Race and Reconciliation

We are excited to invite our youth on the summer 2024 trip - a Tulsa Race and Reconciliation Week, June 8-15. This will be our second experience with youth service and learning between the UCC and the Disciples of Christ in a nationwide program called "Be the Neighbor."

Tulsa Race and Reconciliation weeks are centered around a justice-focused biblical curriculum based on Luke and Matthew. Youth will have opportunities to serve with local ministries and social service organizations. Drawing from Tulsa's history of racial violence in the Trail of Tears and the burning of "Black Wall Street," youth will learn from activists and church leaders who are determined to find hope and seek reconciliation and growth rather than simply lamenting the past. Youth will look back at the history of racism to understand why and how to address racism today and into the future. They will learn about types of racism, differences between equity and equality, and the racial wealth gap. Lessons learned will be brought home and put to work at St. Pauls and in Chicago. Register here: tinyurl.com/2024-youth-mission-trip.

JOIN THE MOVEMENT - provided by SPARC

Black History Month is far more than a way to celebrate the strengths and honor the struggles of African Americans. When individuals, families, communities, or cultures are oppressed, oppression is often cloaked in distraction, denial and disinformation. Physical and psychological wounds may be encoded in genetic changes that last many generations, but many of the stories that would otherwise provide meaning and context have been cast aside. Learning and speaking the truth about history may not redress its wrongs, but without that truth we have little or no hope of healing our morality, our relationships, or our society. It's up to us.

CREATION CORNER - provided by Green Team

REASSESS FOOD CHOICES/USE

- Grow and share vegetables.

PLEDGING & GIVING INFORMATION

PLEDGE WITH BOLD GRATITUDE FOR 2024

Thank you to everyone who has already made a pledge for 2024! Your generous support of St. Pauls is greatly needed and much appreciated. If you have yet to pledge your time, talents or treasures for 2024, you can fill out a paper pledge form and put it in the offering tray or return it to the office. Or, you can pledge online at spucc.org/pledge or by scanning this QR code.

Making a pledge shares with us your intention to donate your time, talents and financial support. This information helps us plan and budget for the upcoming year.

Important Note: If your pledged financial support for 2024 is changing from this year, and you have a current recurring donation set up through one of our donation options, please adjust your recurring donation accordingly. Pledge forms do not authorize St. Pauls to create or update recurring donations. Email bookkeeper@spucc.org with questions or for help.

IRA QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTIONS

If you have an IRA and are required, or will be required, to take a minimum annual distribution (RMD) from your account, you may be interested to know that there are tax advantages to taking your distribution as a direct contribution to a charitable organization such as St. Pauls.

If the distribution is made directly from your IRA to St. Pauls, then you enjoy two tax benefits: 1) the distribution does not count as taxable income and 2) the distribution does count towards satisfying your RMD if over age 73. The gift, called a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD), must go directly from your IRA to the organization, and your total gifts cannot exceed $100,000 per year. You can make QCDs after you reach age 70 ½, which is earlier than the current RMD age of 73. You cannot make QCDs from your 401K; it has to be rolled into an IRA first.

With the 2017 changes in the tax law, some have lost the ability to itemize their deductions, including charitable contributions, and are now taking the higher standard deduction. Making a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) is a great way to still get a tax benefit for charitable giving. If you have questions about QCDs, consult your tax or financial advisor. Members of the Finance Committee are able to provide more information as well. Reach out to Committee chair Sally Fletcher at Treasurer@SPUCC.org.

TODAY'S MUSIC

Schmücke dich, o liebe Seele, BWV 654 by Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) is a hymn tune we know in English as Deck Thyself My Soul With Gladness. It is one of the great German communion hymns and is often referred to by church musicians as “the queen of communion chorales.” SCHMÜCKE DICH (Deck Thyself, My Soul, With Gladness) was composed by Johann Crüger (1598-1662). Crüger also composed Nun danket alle Gott (Now Thank We All Our God).

Brightest and Best/Star in the East is an unattributed tune that was first found published in the 1826 early American hymnal, The Temple Harmony. The music has become part of the rich American hymn tradition associated with the Sacred Harp (1832) movement and singing conventions. Reginald Heber (1783-1826) wrote this text and also the well known hymn text Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty. He was born into a wealthy English family, became an Anglican priest, and translated many Latin texts into English.

O Wondrous Sight, O Vision Fair uses a strong anonymous 15th century English melody, the AGINCOURT HYMN. The text is a translation of the original Latin, Coelestis Forman gloria, by Anglican clergyman J. M. Neale (1818-1866). Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise is set to a popular Welsh ballad, ST. DENIO. The text was written in 1867 by Walter C. Smith (1824-1908). He was a Presbyterian pastor and author of a number of books on theology.

The text of I Come With Joy was written by Brian Wren (b. 1936), who is a pastor in the Congregational Church in England. He wrote the hymn as a summary of a series of sermons on the meaning of communion. The tune is an old American hymn, DOVE OF PEACE, from the Southern Harmony Hymnal, part of the Sacred Harp tradition. It was arranged by Austin Lovelace (1919-2010), who was organist and choirmaster for a number of years at First United Methodist Church in Evanston.

Come O Fount of Every Blessing, to the tune NETTLETON, is from the rich American tradition of the Sacred Harp hymnals, specifically Wyeth's Repository of Sacred Music. The text was written by Robert Robinson (1735-1790), who began his professional life as an apprentice to a hairdresser before committing himself to a religious life.

Ninze otpushaiyesi, commonly known in Latin as the nunc dimittis or the Song of Simeon, was composed by Alexandr Grechaninov (1864-1956). He is primarily remembered for his liturgical music for the Russian Orthodox Church. This is a setting of Simeon's prayer upon seeing the child Jesus. God promised Simeon that he would live to see the Messiah. Grechaninov emigrated from the Soviet Union to France in 1925 and immigrated to the United States in 1939, spending the rest of his life here. Old Church Slavonic has a similar relationship to modern Russian as Latin does to Italian. George Matterling added the Gloria Patri in the style of Grechaninov. While the Gloria Patri is a prescribed response in liturgical western churches to biblical readings or anthems on biblical texts, it is not part of the liturgy in the Russian Orthodox Church. A note for this time - The Russian Orthodox Church was said to be founded by St. Andrew, one of the 12 disciples, when he journeyed from Greece to what became Kiyv, Ukraine, but was then known as Kiyyan Rus' (land of the Rus').

We Have Come at Christ's Own Bidding is a contemporary text written in 1988 by American Carl P. Daw (b. 1944). He was an Episcopal priest and faculty member at William and Mary College in Williamsburg, VA. It is set to the famous Welsh tune HYFRYDOL, our second Welsh hymn today, by Rowan Hugh Prichard (1811-1887) when he was only 19. We sing this tune to the texts Love Divine, All Loves Excelling and also Alleluia! Hearts to Heaven.

Top of My Head was composed by Roy Hargrove (1969-2018). In his all too short life, Hargrove became one of the greats in the jazz performing and recording world. He was a composer whose principal instruments were trumpet and flugelhorn. In addition to jazz, he also performed and recorded hip-hop, R & B, gospel, funk, and alternative rock. Born in Waco, Texas, he attended the Berklee College of Music in Boston for one year, but a very active performing and recording career ended his formal training. He made and contributed to numerous recordings. His 14-year battle with kidney disease ended with his death in 2018.

SPECIAL MUSIC 2023-2024

"MASS APPEAL"

Once again, there is a theme for special music during the 2023-2024 season offered by our Chancel Choir during our 10 a.m. Sunday morning worship services. Please add these remaining dates to your calendar and please invite your friends to join us in person or online at spucc.org/streaming.

Mass Appeal is a way to look at one of the oldest forms of Christian liturgical worship in three very different ways. The goal is to share how the words of the liturgical Mass can be expressed in varied musical styles but always with the same goal: expressing the spiritual joy, longing, majesty, and supplication.

Sunday, March 17, 2024 - Messe solennelle by Louis Vierne. This French Romantic setting in Latin was composed for choir and organ in 1899. It showcases beautiful and majestic writing for both choir and a pipe organ with the breadth of colors available on our Phoenix and the talents of Kevin Dzierzawski.

Sunday, May 19, 2024 - A Gospel Mass was composed in 1982 by Robert Ray. This wonderful setting, largely in English, marries the spiritual energy and uplift of Gospel music with the timeless words of the Mass ordinary. This gives us a chance to showcase not only the Chancel Choir, but also our incredible St. Arbucks Quartet.

ABOUT ST. PAULS

Making a Joyful Sound in the City!

St. Pauls UCC has a vibrant history in the city of Chicago. Founded in 1843, we are one of the city's oldest churches. In 1989, we became one of America's first congregations to declare ourselves "Open and Affirming" of LGBTQ+ people.

From founding Chicago's largest provider of social services to at-risk children to starting a home for the elderly, from housing protestors at the 1968 Democratic Convention to hosting Lincoln Park's first MLK day march against violence on Chicago's streets, we are proud to make a joyful sound in the city.

Most important, during the past 180 years we are glad to have introduced thousands of children and adults to the amazing, inclusive, life changing, uplifting love of God. We do so in worship that is traditional, but far from conventional.
